

Wee Kee Jin - Workshop near Cambridge 2025

26 – 28 May (Mon-Wed), 6 - 9 pm, at

Dry Drayton CE Primary School, Park Street, Dry Drayton, CB23 8DA

Wee Kee Jin will be leading a workshop over 3 evenings on the practice and application of Tai Chi. This workshop will be of interest to students of Tai Chi at all levels and an ideal introduction for beginners wishing to explore Tai Chi for the first time. It will also be of interest to those training in other styles of martial arts.

Wee Kee Jin is the principal instructor at the Taijiquan School of Central Equilibrium based in Auckland New Zealand. He is internationally recognized as a senior instructor of the Huang Sheng-Shyan system and is in ongoing demand by schools and associations in Europe, New Zealand and Brisbane Australia. Wee Kee Jin has dedicated himself to Tai Chi, with professionally teaching in Singapore, where he was born, and in New Zealand where he immigrated in 1991. Wee Kee Jin gives workshops in England, Holland, Germany, Austria, Norway and Denmark, plus every few months he crosses the Tasman to Brisbane, Australia. Over the southern hemisphere summer months, he hosts visiting students from Europe, America and Australia, providing them with residential training including personalized tuition, and access to his schools' classes. The distance hasn't deterred many from returning regularly. This is probably not just a reflection of Wee Kee Jin's depth in understanding Tai Chi Chuan, but also his open and accessible teaching style.

The workshop will consist of:

- Five primary exercises
- Tai Chi form
- Partner work
- Cultivating and releasing "relaxed force".
